

My
relationship
with God.

Do I pray each day?

Do I make a sincere effort to participate in Mass?

Have I deliberately missed Mass on Sunday?

Do I see God and love Him in other people?

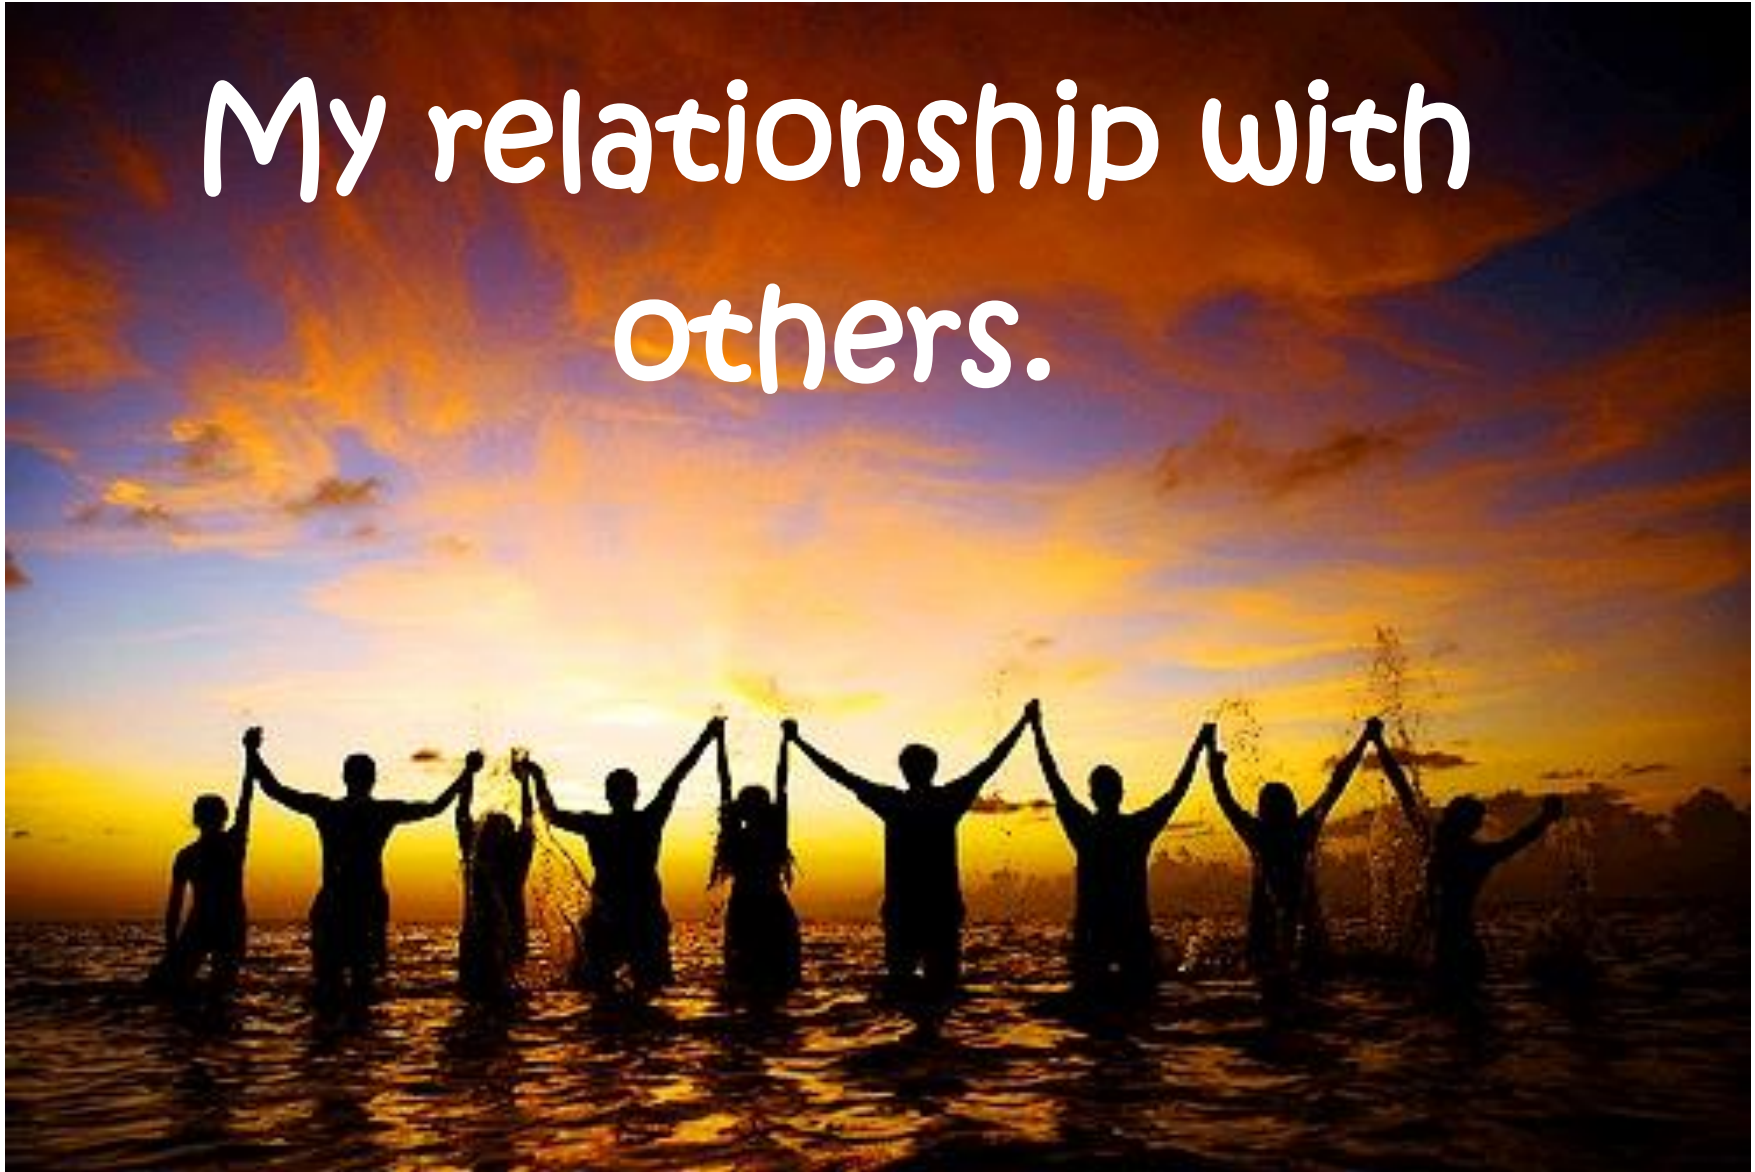

Do I pray and attend Mass only because I have to or because I love God?

Have I looked at horoscopes?

Do I think of God during the day and talk with him?

Do I really trust God with my life and my future.

My relationship with others.

Do I love those around me, especially my family and my Classmates?

Am I jealous of what others have?

Do I gossip or say things behind someone's back?

Have I forgiven those who have hurt
me?

Do I honour my parents and teachers and those who are helping me to become a good person?

Am I respectful of others? Of the poor? Of people who do not agree with me?

My
relationship
towards myself.

Do I accept being the person I am,
knowing that I am the very best of God's Creation?

Am I developing the talents God gave me? Do I study, read, pray?

Am I overly attached to my possessions?

Do I appreciate the good things God has given me?
